

Coventry Family History Society Journal articles in the September 2018 edition

Why did the parents of this man call him Beverley?

Roots in the Reformation

This article may help your investigate further

The story of Arbury Canal system

The need for coal to be transported

The Lost Railway: Lapworth to Henley-in-Arden
A long story, for a short railway, with a very short life

Where are Edward Forrest's descendants now?

If we can find them, his medallion can be returned to them

White and Poppe

The story of a Coventry munitions factory

The Journal of the Governor of Coventry Goal

Would such conditions be tolerated today?

All these articles and others in the September journal join the society today and receive your copy